This is the opportunity for you as an employer to meet one of the UC Workforce Development Representatives for everything you need to know about the employer's responsibilities with a UC claim. We will give an overview of the claims filing process, the determination process, and appeal rights. You will also learn more about when a claim can be opened, how it is filed, and the forms you will receive.

Questions & Answers

We know there are times when the UC program seems confusing, so be sure to bring us any questions or concerns you have. We hope this webinar, along with a chance to hear issues other employers are experiencing, can help your business better understand the UC program.
